

Environmental Policy of BYD Electric Bus & Truck Hungary Ltd.

The main profile of BYD Electric Bus & Truck Hungary Kft. is the production of electric-powered public transport vehicles and their distribution worldwide. To maintain green earth and human future, BYD Company is dedicated to environmental protection and sustainable development, as well as to create healthy, safe working environment for all employees. Our main principles are to minimize environmental impacts, prevent any pollution and to improve the environmental performance of manufacturing activity.

In order to meet the aforementioned environmental goals we are committed to:

- Operate and continuously develop our Environmental Management System that satisfies the requirements of MSZ EN ISO 14001: 2015.
- Make strategic and operational decisions of our company, taking environmental considerations into account.
- Build close and mutual cooperation with authorities, local governments and other stakeholders.
- Continuously obey and monitor the changes in environmental, health and safety-related laws and regulations and comply with other regulations related to our activity.
- Treat hazardous and non-hazardous waste as a priority and strive to minimize their environmental burden as well as increase waste utilization.
- Take into account all environmental and work safety risks at new investments, technology development.
- Promote our environmental policy, our goals and our achievements with our colleagues and partners through regular trainings and active communication.

We put great emphasis on strengthening the environmental, health and safety consciousness of our employees and their commitment to the environment, which we achieve through providing constant trainings.

The management of the Company declares that BYD Electric Bus & Truck Hungary Kft. performs its activities in accordance with the guidelines of our environmental policy and requires it from all its employees and partners, thus contributing to the development of our environmental performance.

Komárom, 13.06.2018.

.....
Managing Director